Experience

2020 - Present TouchArcade • Freelance Reviews Copywriter

Focusing on iOS games and writing reviews discussing the design, playability, and gameplay. Covering all aspects of game design, understanding the process involved and explaining it succinctly.

2019 - Present Macchiato • Culture Writer

Writing and editing articles and essays, as a passion project, centered around how race, upbringing, and a difference in cultural background make the design and tech world vastly different for people that aren't part of the average demographic.

2019 - 2020 Howard Community College • PR & Marketing Intern

Working alongside a team to promote and push the goals of the college overall. Overseeing social media, student profiles, and various news stories. Worked with another intern to utilize videos and photos to raise engagement.

2016 - 2019 HCC Times • Content Strategist

Crafted ideas and projects for various writers and focused on maintaining organizational standards. Created a new layout for the physical paper and made branding consistent with the college.

2014 - 2016 Nintendojo • News & Reviews Copyeditor

Wrote articles focused on news topics within the world of Nintendo. Alongside primarily writing reviews for new video games, accessories, and products while also writing op-ed articles going deeper in depth.

2011 - 2016 Culture Milk • Senior Copywriter

Built a team of eight, routinely wrote and edited articles about technology, new apps, latest products, and the world around them. Article topics span across fashion, literature, music, movies, and anything modern-culture.
